28 Gramercy Park South, Gramercy/Flatiron

The New York Andalus Ensemble, a multiethnic, multifaith group that studies and performs works in Arabic, Hebrew, Spanish, and Ladino, is rooted in the cosmopolitanism of Córdoba. Under the direction of ethnomusicologist and multi-instrumentalist Samuel R. Torjman Thomas, Ph.D., our mission is to share this Andalusian spirit with communities worldwide. The semi-professional large ensemble consists of a choir and a wide array of traditional and modern acoustic instruments; the professional chamber orchestra includes five to seven performers. The NYAE is sponsored by the Foundation for Iberian Music in partnership with the City University of New York-Graduate Center.
